

Your Personalized Luxury!

Fact Sheet on the New VIP Lounge at Frankfurt Airport:

Location	Transit area B of Terminal 1
Floor space	1300 m ²
Positioning	Luxurious relaxation while traveling, exclusive privacy, enjoyable comfort, now additionally enhanced by a new brand
Investment	Lower eight-digit euro sum
Duration of construction	Two years
Interior architecture	MM Design in Frankfurt
Design	Focus on high-quality interiors, warm colors, fabrics and art
Facilities	Club lounge with bar Gaming lounge Eight private suites of different sizes with a variety of styles, furnishings and amenities Conference lounge for delegations and business meetings

	Cigar lounge in cooperation with Davidoff
Capacity	Up to 15 groups of different sizes concurrently for a maximum of 80 guests. As many as 35,000 guests are expected in 2017.
Guest breakdown	50% of the guests are from Europe and most of the rest are from the Persian Gulf, CIS states, China and the U.S.
Staff	Currently 75
Prices	Arrivals and departures: 330 euros plus VAT for the first person and 180 euros plus VAT for each additional person Transfers: 340 euros plus VAT for one person and 260 euros plus VAT for an additional person Private suite: between 100 and 600 euros plus VAT, depending on the size and facilities
Highlights	Guests can choose between privacy and company. The furnishings and amenities match the standard of a five-star hotel. For example: fabric wall coverings and marble fixtures in the bathrooms, some of which include a tub and footbath
Entertainment in suites:	Television, magazines from different countries and selected picture books
In all lounges:	High-speed Wi-Fi

Gaming lounge:

Table soccer, gaming consoles, pinball machine

In-lounge shopping:

Merchandise from airport shops, including jewelry, handbags, designer fashions, premium alcoholic beverages, caviar and much more